Kentucky State College

Frankfort, Kentucky

May 4, 1955

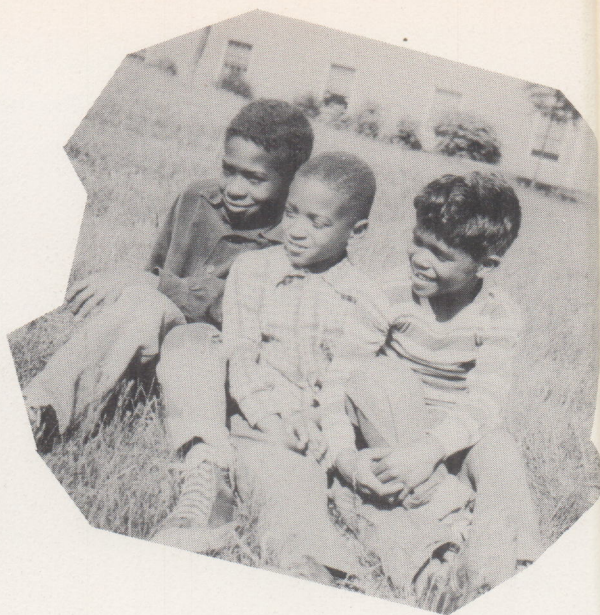

Dear Folks,

The dawn of another commencement at Kentucky State College is breaking, and what is more significant, after years of hard work and sacrifice, the dawn is finally breaking for me. After having looked anxiously ahead toward this goal, through what seemed like an age of darkness, it is yet inconceivable that this is my day.

In reflecting over my student days within the hallowed walls of Kentucky State, I can now more clearly see the value of the things to which I have been exposed. There have been many avenues of learning upon which I have traveled - slowly or with difficulty, but with subsequent facility, success and even mastery. I have had many interesting and meaningful experiences and associations all of which have contributed to my personal development, growth and maturity, and which have had an important bearing on what I am now, and the role I am soon to assume.

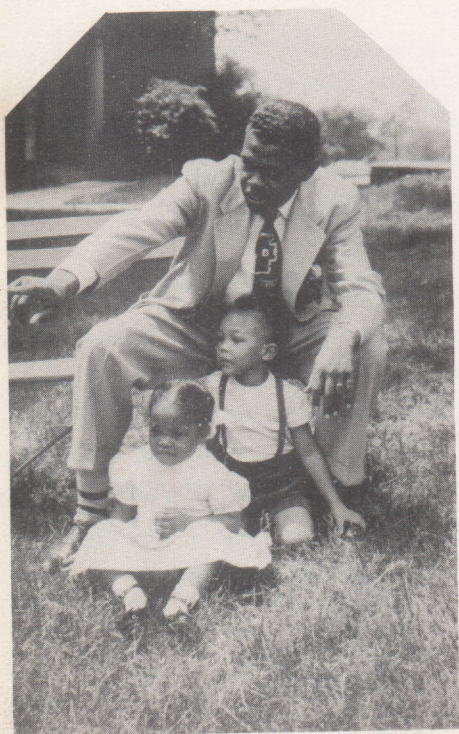

In looking over the forces which have shaped me into the person which I am today, I cannot help but credit you the highest, for surely without you I would not have been able to avail myself of the vast opportunities and privileges afforded me at K.S.C.

It is to express to you my deepest feeling of gratitude and appreciation that I write you now for the last time as a student at Kentucky State College, of the people, places and things which have meant so much to me, and which shall soon become merely memories and associations of a period of my life which shall have been one of the most significant...

OFFICE OF PRESIDENT

January
Fifth
1955

To the Class of 1955:

Extra-curricular activities in a college are designed to take care of those normal, wholesome student interests for which the curriculum in most colleges does not adequately provide. These activities may take many different forms, however, one of the more important ones is the publication of the College Annual.

Those students who have provided leadership in the publication of this Annual have grown tremendously themselves while at the same time they have produced a document which is a monument to their efforts, a valuable recorded history for the students and a service to the institution.

I congratulate you on a job well done.

Very sincerely yours,

R. B. Atwood
President

ENGLISH EMPHASIS WEEK

The activities of our annual English Emphasis Week, observed from October 25-30 were very interesting. A brief history will enable you to understand more about the objectives of "the week."

English Emphasis Week was started at K. S. C. by Mrs. Helen F. Holmes in the school year 1943-44. During that year, male students were called away from Ky. State by Uncle Sam and the main fall activity, football, practically ceased: This naturally left the campus rather dull.

After Dr. R. S. Gassley made a study of student and English problems on the campus, Mrs. Holmes was inspired to start some type of activity that would aid the student academically and socially; so, English Emphasis Week was born.

The aims of "the week" are: (1) to emphasize the role of the language arts in a modern society, (2) to make a contribution to the social and intellectual life, and (3) to give training experience thru student participation.

This year the activities of "the week" were a program by Earl Spicer, a ballad singer, a play, "Bell, Book, and Candle", a dance, and a Banquet, with Mr. Mack Green, from Central State College, being the guest speaker.

MISS FREDA M. ROSS Miss Kentucky State College 1954-1955

It really would have been wonderful had you been able to attend our homecoming festivities. The first gala occasion was the Coronation Ball, at which "Miss Kentucky" received her crown, and power to reign for the '54-'55 season.

"Miss Kentucky's" attendants were Dorothy Sims, and Betty Mc Daniels, both of whom are seniors.

The next big occasion was the homecoming game when "good ole Ky." defeated Jackson College by a score of 20-6!

Next came the annual Homecoming dance. I really can't begin to describe how the people were packed and jammed in Bell Gymnasium!

This climaxed the 1954 homecoming season, and then, back to our books we went.

ALMA MATER

Hail to our Alma Mater, Dear is her name,

And there shall be no other, To surpass her fame.

Hers is the hand that guides us,
Day after day,

And She will stand beside us, When we go on our way.

Sing every voice together, Let echoes rise,

Hail to our Alma Mater, Shout to the skies.

Holding the torch of Wisdom,
She leads the way,

Clasping the hand of Freedom,
As she marches along.

CHORUS

May blessings be upon Her, Shepherd of youth;

She holds the seat of honor, In the hall of truth.

Mem'-ries of Her shall never Fade
from our hearts,

And we will praise Her ever, For the love She imparts.

Folks, my letter is about to end, but the memory of my college experience will live in my heart forever. From these few pages, I hope you have gained an idea of what my four years at H. S. C. have meant to me.

I shall look forward to seeing you and the family here at "Graduation".
